Ontario's Long-Term Care COVID-19 Commission shone a light on the discrimination and institutional failures the senior population in Long-Term Care experience on a daily basis. This year's special lecture includes a fireside chat with former Associate Chief Justice Frank N. Marrocco discussing the Long-Term Care Commission's investigation and recommendations.

We welcome Charles Harnick, QC, Board Chair, bringing greetings on behalf of Legal Aid Ontario.

Following the keynote presentation ACE will host a panel discussion between:

Jane E. Meadus, Staff Lawyer & Institutional Advocate, ACE

Suzan Fraser, Public Law Lawyer, Fraser Advocacy

Dee Tripp, Executive Director, Ontario Association of Residents' Councils (OARC)
